Public Invited to Inspect Big Disposal Plant Residents of Torrance are invited to join an official tour of inspection of the new sewage disposal plant near Harbor City on Wednesday, March 28. City officials from all over the district and county officials will be in the party. Anyone wishing to accompany the group should meet at the Torrance Chamber of Commerce office at 1 p. m.

School Notes The B6 grade of Room 24 gave a tea, Tuesday, March 13th from 2 to 4 o'clock to entertain their mothers. Short recitation periods occupied the time from 2 to 3 and a social time with a program was given from 3 to 4.

School Notes We are very proud to announce that Ellsworth Clark, a member of our Elementary School Orchestra, has been invited to play in the Junior Orchestra concert, May 25. This orchestra is composed of 250 children selected from different elementary school orchestras throughout the Los Angeles city schools.

School Notes A program for school children will be broadcast each Monday night between 8 and 9 o'clock from KMTR. The programs will be presented by Loren Powell and his Little Symphony Orchestra, all members of the great Philharmonic organization. The compositions to be given are selected from the Los Angeles school course in music appreciation.

District Parliamentarian Speaks at Women's Club Meeting Here Mrs. Charles McKelvey, district parliamentarian, discussed the changes in the by-laws of the Torrance Women's Club, at the club meeting Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. McKelvey explained why these changes were made necessary by the incorporation of the club, the greatest change being in the terms of office. Each officer shall serve two years instead of one year. The officers are divided into two groups; one group will be elected in the even years and the other group in the odd years. Thus the board of directors will not all change at the same time and the work of the board may go on without interruption. These changes will be voted on at the next meeting of the club.

District Parliamentarian Speaks at Women's Club Meeting Here Mrs. McKelvey told of the activities of the clubs in the devastated districts in giving themselves and their club houses to rescue work. Mrs. McKelvey said that this was one of the things meant by community service, and likened a club to a tree. The president is the trunk, the branches are the directors, the leaves are the members, the roots are justice, courtesy, order, rule of the majority, and protection of the minority. Through the roots the sap is drawn up into the tree, and fed to the leaves through the small branches, the standing committee.

Harbor City P. O. Move Is Studied It was reported that a postal inspector was here recently considering the advisability of moving the Harbor City postoffice from Bellefonte avenue to the new Johnson building at 258th and Governor avenue. The inspector referred the matter to another inspector. A committee from the Lomita Chamber of Commerce will endeavor to meet the second inspector and protect the move. Since the Chamber has proposed that a fourth-class office for Lomita would be against the best interests of Lomita the directors believe that the location of the Harbor City office in the same section would also be a detriment.

Harbor Chambers Come Here April 12 Hugo F. Schmidt, general chairman for the entertainment of the Harbor District Chamber of Commerce to be held here April 12, reported that arrangements for the affair are well under way. The dinner and meeting will be held in Odd Fellows temple.

Miss Woods Will Wed on April 15th Many interesting pre-nuptial events will no doubt follow the announcement that Miss Eunice Woods of 1858 Pennsylvania avenue will wed Raymond Wood of Hollywood on April 15. Miss Woods, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Woods, is a graduate of Narbonne high school and an accomplished cellist. Mr. Wood is an assistant camera man in a Hollywood studio.

Celebrate Two Anniversaries The fifteenth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Coy F. Farquhar of Redondo Blvd. and the birthday of Mrs. Farquhar's father, John Sidebotham, of Oak Street, was the occasion of a theatre party last week. Attending were Mr. and Mrs. Farquhar and daughter Emma, and Mr. and Mrs. Sidebotham.
